

Business Networking Breakfast

“Do you know what kind of gift your business is?”

Christine Hepburn from The Defining Edge - will enlighten you with her knowledge and experience

- Held on the last Friday of every month, Business Networking Breakfast invites you to join us and network with like-minded business people. This is your chance to let everyone know about your business.
- All attendees are invited to promote their business with their 1-2 minute spiel. Bring along your samples and brochures and be ready to tell us why your business rocks!
